ELECTIONS ARE OPPOSED TO ONE-MAN RULE

"It Is Plain That a Proper Judicial or, Quasi-judicial Investigation Has Not Been Held, and in My Opinion if Such an Investigation is to be Held it is Necessary for the Council to Have Certain Charges, and to Give Notice to the Commissioner of those Charges. Only After These Have Been Heard, Should a Commissioner be Discharged. For That Reason, if the Original Application Had Been Made Before me Instead of Mr. Justice Harvey, I Should Have Treated it in the Same Way. Meanwhile the Injunction Continues."

MAMMOTH GATHERING OF CITIZENS IN NEW BIJOU THEATRE ENDORSES ACTION TAKEN BY CITY COUNCIL

Meeting Called for Purpose of Censuring Men Who Dismissed Commissioner Bouillon Proves to be Boomerang—Ratepayers Refuse to Hear Representatives Maligned

BUNGLING METHODS LOST CITY HUNDREDS OF DOLLARS

Mayor and Aldermen, in Fighting Speeches, Show Electors How Bouillon Regime Has Proven a Failure—Arrogated to Himself Mass of Detail Work Which Handicapped Heads of Departments and Prevented Proper Operation of Civic Utilities

Never has so emphatic a verdict been rendered by the citizens of Edmonton on any public question, as the verdict which was rendered last evening in the Bijou theatre, when the council's motion dismissing Commissioner Bouillon from office was unanimously endorsed. Over a thousand citizens found accommodation in the large auditorium, and as large a crowd gathered on First street, unable to obtain accommodation. They were addressed by a number of speakers in the open air.

The life of the great mass meeting few citizens of Edmonton have never seen. As an event in municipal politics it was unique. Not during the days of interest in the legislature, when the Waterways question attracted large crowds to the scene of political conflict the most bitter, was public opinion so thoroughly aroused. It is doubtful if any former council has been so popular as the Edmonton council has become by its official action of the past week. Such at least would appear from the reception which was given its members by a representative body of ratepayers last evening. The endorsement which the council received at the hands of the ratepayers was unequivocal.

Up to a very late hour in the proceedings the crowd was in the best of humors. Only when H. Milton Martin attempted to bring before the meeting, his resolution condemning the council, while Mayor Armstrong was yet to be heard, did the ratepayers lose patience. Till then it could not be said with any degree of fairness that the pro-Bouillon forces had not been given as good, if not as respectful a hearing as they had been accorded by the speakers who pleaded for a strengthening of the hands of the council.

At 6:05 the crowd began to assemble opposite the old Methodist church, and finding that the building was condemned, they were notified that the meeting would be held in the Bijou theatre. For almost an hour they waited, and then the doors were flung open and the hall filled in the space of a few minutes.

Approve Council's Action.
From the outset it became evident that but a small section favored the Bouillon party. The commissioner's name was greeted with groans. Mayor Armstrong's name, the names of the members of the city council who had formed the two thirds majority, against Bouillon, with ringing cheers. The crowd passed a half hour in good natured banter of the public men, before the commencement of proceedings.

The centre round which all the controversy of the past week has revolved, — Commissioner Bouillon — thought it wise to absent himself from

MAYOR'S STIRRING SPEECH

"Commissioner Bouillon has criticized the acts of his superiors through the press. He has taken no cognizance of a dastardly anonymous attack upon Superintendent McNaul, and has referred a discreditable letter of this character, which he ought to have consigned to the waste paper basket, to Superintendent McNaul for a report. It is an affidavit containing the charges referred to in this anonymous communication which Mr. McNaul has been peddling around the city—a ridiculous thing, an affidavit dealing with what one man said another man told him about another. That is all that Mr. McNaul possesses against Mr. Bouillon. And yet he takes the course he has taken? Mr. McNaul had a contract to supply the city with coal. Mr. Bouillon impudently told him that he was not to be trusted, and he was not to be trusted on account of the inferior quality of his coal.

Mr. McNaul was told me that as soon as he was docked he got a secret service man from Spokane, and after having him around the city for some time, got him to make an affidavit. That is the affidavit Mr. McNaul possesses. It contains no charges—it is only gossip. Let a man make a charge and substantiate it with evidence, and I will willingly if necessary to send the man implicated to the penitentiary. If a man will make charges such as Mr. McNaul has done, and not come through, he is not fit to be trusted with decent men.

The meeting. It is doubtful whether he could have obtained a hearing. It is doubtful whether his entrance would not have precipitated something in the nature of a riot, for strong passions were aroused, and it became abundantly clear that the utilities manager is the most unpopular person in town.

Fifteen Speakers.
In all fifteen speeches were delivered, the speakers, with the exception of Mayor Armstrong and ex-Mayor Armstrong, who appeared as speakers, were all ratepayers. The first speaker was confined to the space of ten minutes each. All of the addressers, except Ald. Gowen who was kept at home by the illness of Mrs. Gowen, were present. Ald. Miller and Ald. Hyndman rose from their seats to come down to the meeting.

A resolution which H. Milton Martin attempted to introduce, was never put, Mr. Martin having left the hall in disgust before the end of the proceedings. This resolution was based on the petitions which have been in circulation, calling on the mayor and council to resign.

The speeches of A. F. Ewing and Joseph Adair were those of cross-bench men, but both expressed their confidence in the city council. Mr. Ewing expressed a strong objection to the principle of city government by injunction. Joe Adair discoursed on the failures of the system, and declared that Bouillon had been saddled with an unbearable burden.

Some idea of the spontaneity with which the ratepayers who are opposed to the Bouillon regime flocked to the public meeting, may be gathered from the fact, vouchered for by each of the speakers, that not a single person was asked to attend the mass meeting last evening.

Just before the commencement of proceedings the audience broke into song. To the accompaniment of a cow bell, and the martial air of "Tramp, tramp, the boys are marching," they sang the following duty, the composition of a local poet:

"Sack, sack, sack for Mr. Bouillon, Raise your voices and proclaim, Fix your names up for battle, Send him back to old Seattle, And he'll never trouble Edmonton again."

The tremendous applause which shook the building as Mayor Armstrong appeared upon the improvised platform at the opening of a public meeting, was quickly won by the raise of his hand. He said that the petition presented to him requesting a public meeting had asked that it be held at as early a date as possible, and that prevented them from securing the largest meeting place possible.

He went on to state how the old Methodist church had been secured after consultation with Mr. Ritchie, but that on the afternoon before the meeting, several citizens had asked him to have the old church building inspected. The building inspector inspected it and condemned it for the meeting. The mayor said he had informed the action of the building inspector only at 6:15, and the council had done their best to secure a place. This theatre had been secured, and the city owed a debt of gratitude to Mr. Lawrence, the proprietor.

If that was the general custom, he said, at public meetings for the mayor to take the chair, but as he was one of those in this controversy, he wished to withdraw and have the meeting appoint a chairman. He moved, seconded by Milton Martin, that the chairman be Judge Harlan, and the judge took the chair.

Judge Harlan said in opening the meeting that if the citizens disposed of

TWO RAILWAY MANAGERS HERE TO FIGHT SUIT

Head of Canadian Transcontinental and Head of U. S. Road in City Today.

RIVAL PARTIES IN IMPORTANT ACTION

Chairman of Grand Trunk Pacific Brings His Officials as Witnesses—Alfred Comes in Private Car from States.

Two railway general managers, one from a big road in the middle States, the other from a Canadian Transcontinental railway, their private cars being in the railway yards within a few hundred yards of each other, are in Edmonton today, rival parties in one of the biggest suits ever tried in an Edmonton court.

E. J. Chamberlain, general manager of the Grand Trunk Pacific railway, with his chief engineer, B. B. Kilmer, reached the city last evening from Winnipeg, in his private car, "Transcontinental."

Frank Alfred, general manager of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railway, with headquarters at Cincinnati, reached the city yesterday in his private car "Cincinnati." Mr. Alfred is accompanied by B. P. Wickham, of Council Bluffs, Iowa, his former partner in Edmonton, in a contracting firm some years ago.

Mr. Alfred and Mr. Wickham are suing the Grand Trunk Pacific for $60,000 balance alleged to be due on supplies furnished by the firm of Wickham and Alfred to the railway company for the construction of the Wolf Creek section of the main line west of Edmonton.

General Manager Chamberlain, his chief engineer, Mr. Kilmer, J. W. Stewart, general manager of the firm of Foley, Welch and Stewart, who is the city solicitor, and Mr. Edgar Edwards, also general manager Alfred, Messrs. B. P. Wickham, E. A. Wickham, and their bookkeepers, will all be witnesses in the action, which comes on for trial this afternoon in the supreme court.

There is a rumor that the parties to the action are attempting a compromise, but it is likely that the action will come to trial.

WHO SUPPLIES STRAW TO THE CITY OF EDMONTON

Who supplies the city straw? That question was fired at Alderman McKinley by ex-Alderman Asar at last night's meeting, just after Ald. McKinley had read a document showing the amount of money received from the city by the firms of Ald. McKinley and Ald. Mould, and after denouncing men who would sit on the council board and take contracts from the city.

"Who sells the city straw?" "I certainly did not," was Ald. McKinley's reply.

Nevertheless, down at the city hall, there are on file a dozen or more weekly scale tickets, bearing J. H. McKinley's name, giving receipts for supplies of straw sold to the city.

Here are some copies of them: Edmonton City scales, Feb. 6, 1911. Straw, Wallace, from J. H. McKinley, to No. 3 fire hall, 3,970 lbs.

November 19, 1910.—Load straw from J. H. McKinley, to No. 2 fire hall, net 3280 lbs. Also bills on the city to No. 3 fire hall, the 19th to No. 1 fire hall, and the 23rd, to No. 2 fire hall.

There are a dozen more such slips on file.

Ald. Hyndman said last night: "No man should go to the city council and do business with the city."

MR. JUSTICE BECK ISSUES AN ORDER CONTINUING INJUNCTION UNTIL NEXT FRIDAY AT NOON

LAND OFFICE REVENUE GOES UP WITH BOUND

February Receipts Away Ahead of Revenue for January and December.

BANK CLEARINGS SHOW CITY'S COMMERCIAL GROWTH

Big Increase in All Departments Shown by Monthly Statistics—Indications Are For Big Year.

That the revenue of the Edmonton district land office is increasing with leaps and bounds every month, and that before the close of 1911, the monthly revenue will be well up over the $50,000 mark, is evidenced by the manner in which the receipts for the month of February have looked ahead of those for January and December, the preceding two months, which were supposed to be record months.

The revenue for the month that has just passed has approached $10,000. When the official figures are given out tomorrow, the total revenue will be well up over that of January which was $7,000. The biggest revenue has been in the timber and mines branch, which has increased heavily since last month. The homesteads also will number far larger than those of last month.

The bank clearings for the month of February, 1911, show a decided increase over previous months, indicating an unusual activity in the commercial markets during the month which comes to an end today.

The clearings for February amounted to $5,213,850.96, being an increase over the same month last year of $4,396,478.85. The clearings for January, 1911, were $7,823,205.17, the increase being $1,184,562.17.

Customs Clearings

Customs clearings for the month of February, 1911, show an increase over the returns for 1910 of $16,297. For last month the returns were $18,000 and for February, 1910, $32,762. The increase from January, 1911, is almost $10,000, the figures for that month being $28,016.

The number of parcels received during February was 12,017 and the number sent out about 900. The increase in the number of parcels sent since January is about 200, and in the number received is about 375.

Immigration Report.

Immigration returns for the month of February show a slight falling off in the number of immigrants registered at the Edmonton hall. There were in all some 72 people registered as immigrants there, being twelve less than in the month of January. Although the number of arrivals sent since January is said to be much better, of the 72 57 are farmers or members of farmer's families. The most of them are also said to have a much larger amount of money than is usual among immigrants. There are one butcher, two commercial travellers, several clerks. Two of the immigrants were colored.

By nationalities the figures are divided as follows: English 4, Scotch 11, Jew 1, German 16, French 7, United States 1, Scotch 1, Russian or Danish 4, Russian 15, Holland 5.

A noticeable element of the manied class immigrants who are beginning to arrive is the number of letters received by the local immigration officer offering to forward money to him and asking him to file on homesteads for them.

Application of C. Gallagher and All Other Ratepayers of City Heard in Chambers this Morning Order Ties Hands of Mayor and Aldermen

The court was packed this morning when the hearing of the application for an injunction to restrain the city from discharging Commissioner Bouillon pending the trial of the proceedings instituted by C. Gallagher, came up for hearing in chambers before Justice Beck. Mayor Armstrong and all of the members of the council with the exception of Aldermen Hyndman and McKinley were present in court, and Commissioner Bouillon was among the audience. After hearing argument of counsel for all parties interested in the Bouillon case, the court continued the injunction until Friday at noon.

O. M. Biegar appeared for C. Gallagher, and the citizens, as plaintiffs, while the city of Edmonton was represented by J. F. C. Brown, Geo. B. O'Connor appearing for those members of the council who opposed the motion dismissing Commissioner Bouillon. Mr. Brown explained that the dispute was one between the administrative and legislative branches of the civic government, and so occupied a position not definitely in behalf of either.

After reading the affidavits upon which the injunction on Saturday was first granted, O. M. Biegar proceeded to read a long list of the affidavits, including that of J. H. McKinley in which it was contended that the dismissal of Commissioner Bouillon was actuated by personal and private reasons on the part of the members of the council, that it was not in the public interest, and that by it the city would suffer great and irreparable loss. An injunction was sought to prevent the dismissal of the commissioner at any meeting.

Based on Hearings.
Mr. O'Connor objected that Alderman McKinley's affidavit did not relate to any matter of fact, but was based only on hearsay. "I am informed by H. Milton Martin" was the preface to Alderman McKinley's statements of opinion.

His Lordship declared that if the evidence were flimsy it would not be taken into consideration by him in arriving at a decision.

Mr. O'Connor: "The whole case is absurd, no reasons for this affidavit are stated it is all grounded in beliefs, in thoughts, in opinions."

Affidavits Submitted.
Mr. Biegar then read the affidavit of Robert Farquharson, Mr. O'Connor objecting on the ground that the only evidence contained in this affidavit bearing upon the question, was based only on suggestions made to Mr. Farquharson.

His Lordship pointed out that if the

"DESPICABLE FALSEHOOD" SAYS EX-POLICE CHIEF

STATEMENT IN MORNING PAPER THAT POLICE GAVE PREFERENCE TO ANTI-BOULLON FACTION CONTRARY TO FACTS, AND AN INSULT TO MEMBERS OF THE DEPARTMENT

As regards reports of "packing," Ex-Chief of Police A. C. Lancey, who was in charge of the police at last night's meeting, this morning made the following statement:

"My statement emanating from a certain unreliable and irresponsible source that the meeting last night was 'packed' is entitled to but the passing scorn which it rightly deserves and is but further indication of the despicable falsehoods to which the calculators of the municipal administration will resort. The police were not at the meeting last night to further the ends or desires of any particular ones but to preserve that order for which Edmonton is noted.

"When I arrived at the Bijou theatre shortly after seven o'clock last night, I found a vast crowd which completely blocked the street. I called upon the assembled citizens to make passage for me and that I would ascertain why the doors had not been opened. They unhesitatingly afforded me leeway to get through and when I had reached the main body of the building, I found there Manager Lawrence of the theatre, and three police officers and no one else. I inquired of Mr. Lawrence why the doors had not yet been opened, and he stated he was awaiting orders from me. I immediately ordered the doors thrown open and the crowd rushed in.

"As to the packing of the theatre by so-called opponents of Mr. Bouillon, it should be stated that anyone who was in the hall and heard the applause which greeted every utterance of the speakers favoring the commissioner must immediately have been convinced that Mr. Bouillon's friends were the ones occupying the seats in close proximity to the platform. This in itself should be sufficient denial and refutation of any report that the mass meeting was 'packed' instead of being one in which citizens assembled to hear a free discussion of the issue.

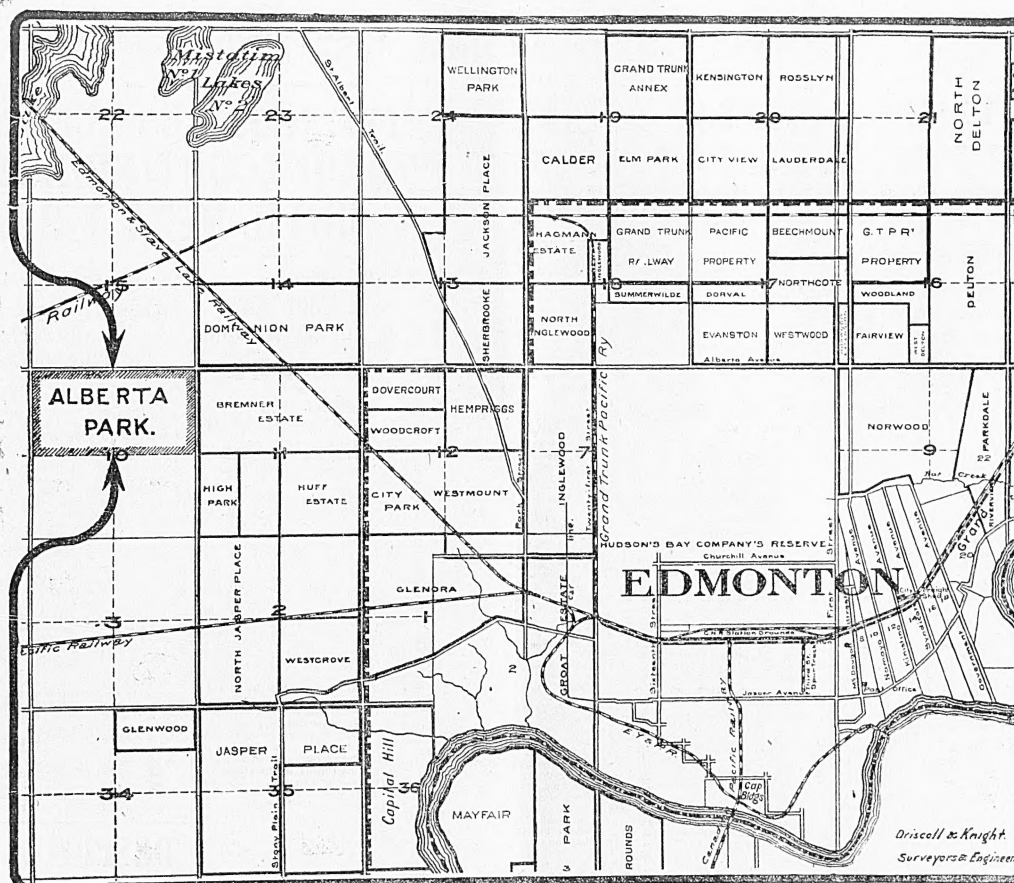

Declare Yourself in With the Wise Ones

Buy Acreage in Alberta Park

THE Best Buying in Acreage in the Province of Alberta. Blocks facing on Alberta Avenue one mile from the city limits. Located in the direction in which the city is growing most rapidly. Correctly arranged for redivision into city lots.

nA Attractive Proposition

Alberta Park has features which will recommend it at once to the intelligent investor. Located within one mile of the city limits, it is certain to come within the scope of residential settlement in a comparatively short time. The trend of development in the city today is west and northwest and Alberta Park lies right in the path of the most rapid extension of the city: Observers who have noticed the advances in property value which have been made in west end suburbs will recognize at once that the continuation of this development is certain to make Alberta Park property very valuable. Groat Estate, Inglewood, North Inglewood and Hemphrigs property has increased in value within the past two years by 200 to 500 per cent. and the astute property owners in these sections recognize that the advance has only just commenced. Alberta Park is certain to come within the radius of this advance in the immediate future, and at the price at which it is selling today it offers an absolute certainty of handsome profits.

The Right Time TO BUY

The activity which has set in in the west end makes it certain that this property will be all closed out before many weeks. Already nearly 25 per cent of the property has been sold, and the balance will go very rapidly. The purchasers who get in now have the advantage of the choice of the blocks which are left and still have an opportunity to make a favorable choice.

Remember that the first purchasers in Norwood, Belvedere, Inglewood and practically every subdivision that has ever been put on in Edmonton reaped the big rewards and got the quick profits. Lots in Norwood on First Street which were sold on the first allotment at $1200 are being advertised today at $1,450 each. These were first choice lots then and they are first choice now. The blocks in Alberta Park along Alberta Avenue which are being picked up now at $250 to $300 will be first choice a year or two years from now at prices very much in advance of present quotations.

MANUFACTURERS

ASKING FOR SITES

Committee Appointed to Decide on Policy which will be Adhered to in Future—City Owns Property Ideally Located for Factory Purposes—Strathcona Man in Wanted by the Police.

Strathcona, Feb. 28.—A problem not the least in importance to the many which confront councils of growing western towns is that arising out of applications for free sites and similar concessions from factory men. It appears to be the standing rule amongst this class of business men to urge concessions for the establishment of a plant and, where possible, by the towns approached one against the other in an endeavor to reap the best offers possible. While cash bonuses are no longer considered by wise-sake councils the fact remains that these same municipal fathers are prone to look upon every likely manufacturing concern with the utmost interest and many instances where the final agreement has certainly not been detrimental to the best interests of the community.

Strathcona has had a steady share of these concession applicants and the difficulty of dealing with them intelligently and without favor has led to a most important step being taken in council upon the initiative of Mayor Davies. A couple of these questions coming before council last meeting Mayor Davies suggested that there should be some policy outlined whereby the city might meet the requests of manufacturing or other concerns without delay and with certain definite limitations. Although opposed to the outright granting of free sites this workshop would give lands for factories on limitations. For instance if a concern would guarantee to build a certain sized plant, within a stated time and to give employment to a certain number of persons he would favor being over a site for use in the future. The transfer until a time considered satisfactory.

Committee Appointed.
This proposal has met with favor evidently both with the council and the board of trade. For the purpose of drafting a policy for future consideration a joint committee from the city council and board of trade has been appointed to prepare and report on the matter. The representatives from the council are the members of the industrial committee. As the city owns several acres of choice property, purchased expressly for manufacturing sites, the committee should have a policy generally satisfactory.

Wanted by Police.
A fracas which might have led very serious consequences for a young man of this city, and which put another young man in the hospital in a very critical condition, took place in a rooming house on a street in the city last week. A young man named Bob Davidson entered the rooms on this particular evening prepared for a game of pool but was forbidden to play by the proprietor, Ted Aldred. It is said that Davidson took the refusal in bad spirit and made a pass at Aldred, who clucked. Through some means Aldred was in the line of one of the racks and sustained a badly cut head. In about 24 hours this wound became more painful and Davidson was taken to the hospital in a dangerous condition but has since recovered somewhat and will soon be out again. Davidson immediately left town, and is being sought after by the police. He is said to have gone down the C.N.R. to Wainwright.

Strathcona Locals.
Saturday's light snow fall and the sharper weather of today came at an opportune time for local teamsters who are hauling on the river road. The trails to the coal mines down stream were in such bad condition with the thaw of last week that it was thought another day or two of the warm weather would make hauling impossible.

Since there are at least 300 teams engaged in the river trail traffic it will readily be seen that a break-up of the roads at this time of the season would be little short of disastrous.

The first ice carnival of the season is the main event at the skating rink tonight and in the absence of other special attractions the arena should be the scene of unusual activity. The city band will be present during the greater part of the evening.

Mr. Wm. Ross and family left Strathcona Saturday for Chicago where they will reside in the future. Mr. Ross came here from Chicago as an automobile telephone expert when the government installed the Strowger system over two years ago and since that time has been superintendent in this city as well as confidential advisor for the rest of the provincial automobile systems.

Recently resigned to accept one of three or four lucrative positions tendered him in Chicago.

Mr. James Ennor and Mrs. Sutherland of this city were the contracting parties in a wedding held here last Friday. The groom is well known having been a resident here for many years.

A great deal of interest is being manifested in the concert to be given in the Methodist church Friday evening next, by the Strathcona Choral society. Mr. V. T. Richards, leader of the society's train for Vancouver and other points where he expects to remain several weeks for the benefit of his health.

Mr. E. McKenzie of Ryley, came in Saturday night for a brief visit in the city.

MAMMOTH GATHERING OF CITIZENS IN NEW BJOU

speech the cry was raised from the audience, "Produce your affidavits." I found after round greeted the remarks of members of the audience reflecting on Mr. Montgomery's attempt to discredit a former civic employee by the circulation of a worthless affidavit.

Mr. Montgomery conveyed the intelligence in opening that he lived in a free country. He asked for a judicial investigation.

"Where is the man who will deny the statements I make?"

"Gives of 'Make them—where are your affidavits?'" in opening his speech, Ald. Grindley declared that he had not met a practical man on the other side in the course of the discussion. As to the Boulton controversy, it was necessary to go back into history to size up the proper elements in the dispute.

Mr. Grindley referred to the Francis report, brought about as a result of the dissatisfaction with poor house conditions under the Leo regime. During the Francis investigation, Mr. Lee and Mr. Garity went east to get a commissioner, and came back with a large expense account and no commissioner. They said they could get a proper man more satisfactorily by correspondence. Mr. Griesbach had started the $10,000 agitation. Mr. Boulton's experience of utilities in Seattle consisted in the management of the gravity water system—and that worked itself.

Ald. Grindley did not think Commissioner Boulton made a good move in resigning himself at the head of the street railway. He had no experience in railroad.

As to the insinuations of dishonesty, Mr. Grindley repudiated the insinuations which had been made against him. "I have never been guilty of a dishonest act in my life," he declared.

"As to the goods which his firm had supplied the city in 1909, fair value had been given, and the contract obtained under fair conditions."

"I take this opportunity of stigmatizing Ald. Hyndman's insinuation as a dirty slur and miserable parish politics," said Ald. Grindley with emphasis.

Joseph Adair.

Out of the turmoil of the last few days would emerge a real form of government, suited to the needs of a city such as Edmonton, said Mr. Adair. He deprecated the introduction of personalities into the controversy. He reviewed the history of the commissioner system, declared that he had nothing against Commissioner Boulton, and went on to say that the commissioner had on his hands a job that no one man was capable of handling. It was doubtful if one man had mastered all the details of street railway operation alone. Superintendent Hyswager, with his wide experience, would bear the speaker out in this.

Mr. Adair proceeded to refer to the special and expert knowledge required for the efficient management of each of the other departments.

"Commissioner Boulton fell down because he was too heavily burdened," said he.

The Des Moines system of government and the board of control system were outlined by the speaker. Under existing conditions no man could be found to replace Commissioner Boulton. The fault was not one of the man but of the system.

Mr. Adair had no disparagement to make of the city council, and deplored that it should be suggested that any of the men actuated by dishonorable motives. That a lawyer who had no goods to sell to the city should cast aspersions on his colleagues who had, was scarcely fair. If the council did not do business with its own business men, Edmonton men, it would do business with Calgary.

H. Milton Martin.

H. Milton Martin got no hearing from the audience whatever. He was booed down when he rose to speak, and when by chance he succeeded in announcing that he had a resolution to offer asking for a thorough investigation, order was not restored for many minutes. The resolution was never offered to the meeting, and notwithstanding the suggestion of Mayor Armstrong that if he offered after the speaking was done, Mr. Martin did not wait to offer it.

Mr. Martin said that in the interests of the city and in the interests of harmony, he thought the audience would agree with him that the only course lay in a thorough enquiry.

"Boulton should be given a chance," he said and at that point the uproar broke out. "He's had his chance" yelled some one.

Mr. Martin got no opportunity to present his resolution.

Then the chairman took a hand.

"Is it your wish that the resolution be read now?"

"No, no."

"Is it your wish that the resolution be read afterwards?"

"No, no, no."

Mayor Armstrong suggested that Mr. Martin be allowed to speak, and present the resolution after he himself had spoken. The audience agreed to this, but Mr. Martin did not complete his speech.

While the audience was far from orderly while he remained on his feet, there were intervals of comparative calm, such as had been taking advantage of by other speakers to continue their remarks after interruption.

Mr. Martin might have proceeded had he been greatly disposed to place his views before the meeting. Not until the vast assembly should have become infinitely quiescent, however, would he consent to proceed. Other speakers had raised their voices, and the storm had ceased as they did so. Mr. Martin stood his ground on the platform for about fifteen minutes, and then stepped down. The resolution was never read.

As Mr. Martin and resolution disappeared together from the building after his short effort to speak.

Mayor Armstrong

Such an ovation has seldom if ever been accorded to any speaker on the public platform in Edmonton. The crowd of Mayor Armstrong as he stepped up to the platform last evening. He was the last speaker. It was, however, not until he rose, but the audience remained quiet, and for several minutes he was unable to obtain a hearing, as cheer after cheer rent the air, hats were waved merrily by the enthusiastic crowd. Then a regrettable incident occurred. Joseph Clark attacked from the chair, shouting something about the reception given Mr. Martin, and apparently contending that as the audience had refused to hear Mr. Martin, they should not hear the mayor. Exactly what Mr. Clark's intention was was not quite apparent, but he was rebuffed from the chair, scorned by a policeman, but still insisted on making a demonstration.

Then a constable laid hands on him, a second came to the aid of the officer, and finally three constables were required to effect the removal of Mr. Clark from the room. A moment later another member of the audience was ejected through the side entrance. Mr. Clough, of Strathcona, demanded that he be allowed to address the meeting, but was eventually overpowered by two constables, who by threat of strenuous measures, quenched his thirst for glory.

Mayor Armstrong deprecated the light manner in which a previous speaker had spoken of the dismissal of superintendents and of the many resignations. When the city and council men it should keep them, to say the least, that it would be easy to replace them, was talk based on ignorance. God never made that man that could handle all the duties of this city, his worship declared, and for this very reason, was convinced that Commissioner Boulton should have left in the hands of his departmental chiefs the handling of their departments. He should see that they produced the goods, but not attempt to interfere in the details of administration.

Exposed Commissioner's Methods.

While the previous speakers had dwelt at length upon the failures of the Boulton regime, it was to Mayor Armstrong that the task fell of making an expose of the methods of the commissioner, such as came as a revelation to the great majority of the audience, and undoubtedly the mayor's speech was the cause of the swiftest of views by the meeting.

Not until the vast assembly should have become infinitely quiescent, however, would he consent to proceed. Other speakers had raised their voices, and the storm pressed a desire to know why Mr. McNaughton was fired, got his reason, and much information beside, which was the subject of the meeting.

The administration of the city's affairs pursued by the utilities commissioner.

As to the cry, "Give Boulton a chance," his worship pointed out that the same men who appealed for a chance for Boulton, were about to submit resolution calling for the firing of a commissioner and an endorsement in the city's previous history. Questions of legality were then raised.

When the council appointed a $10,000 man they required a much better man than a $2500 servant.

The very reason placed before the public for the firing of the commissioner were found adequate for the firing of a commissioner and an endorsement in the city's previous history. Questions of legality were then raised.

Entitled to Respect.

The accusation that he had been accused to Commissioner Boulton, his worship denied. The man who started the trouble was Mr. Boulton. "Whoever is mayor of this city demands at least respect from the employees."

"On three occasions has Commissioner Boulton made a distasteful attack upon me. He was not man enough to come to my office, except when Ald. McKinley and Commissioner Bulchart were present. Then he made a violent attack upon me."

The second attack was in the council. "I have never heard of a man before making an attack on his superior officer, and calling him down as though he were a little child," said his worship.

In the loss of Davidson the city had lost a man whose value they could not appreciate as it should be appreciated.

Commissioner Boulton had the nerve to tell me Davidson had the swollen head, that he was full of pride, and that he would go out of the city's service disgraced," said his worship.

"I am willing to take my affidavit that no lunacy has inspired me in my action," he declared later in his speech.

Mayor Armstrong had given Commissioner Boulton the hand of friendship after the abuse had been heaped upon him. Yet after that Mr. Boulton had broken out in another abusive attack.

No legislative body could allow itself to be defiled and abused as the council had been by Boulton.

His worship's pointed out that the commissioners when giving powers to hire and fire superintendents, also stipulated and were promised that the commissioners would never fire a head clerk merely because he was a friend of that commissioner.

Mayor Armstrong declared his municipal belief in ownership principles. The citizens should first be asked whether they would themselves operate a gas plant before considering any other offer. He declared that the very papers which had raised the host and cry that the council's firing of Boulton was actuated by a desire to give away franchises, were the papers that had attacked the mayor for not coming to an agreement with the International.

While he was not stamping for Mr. Boulton, Mr. McNaughton, his worship pointed out that even if these superintendents had not given satisfaction the commissioners should have first suggested to them that they might

Policy of Interference.

He criticised the action of Boulton in interfering with the hiring of subordinates in the departments. It should not be possible, as it had been possible under the Boulton regime, for a commissioner to hoist on to the city a clerk merely because he was a friend of that commissioner.

Mayor Armstrong declared his municipal belief in ownership principles. The citizens should first be asked whether they would themselves operate a gas plant before considering any other offer. He declared that the very papers which had raised the host and cry that the council's firing of Boulton was actuated by a desire to give away franchises, were the papers that had attacked the mayor for not coming to an agreement with the International.

While he was not stamping for Mr. Boulton, Mr. McNaughton, his worship pointed out that even if these superintendents had not given satisfaction the commissioners should have first suggested to them that they might why the latter desired to discharge Mr. McNaughton. Commissioner Boulton had stated that such a course was "in the public interests," and had referred vaguely to "certain affidavits made out in a certain office about a certain matter." The information which Commissioner Boulton had on hand, but which he declined to divulge, was based on the flimsy affidavit of Geo. S. Montgomery.

His worship traced the course of the growth of dissatisfaction among the superintendents. He pointed out that Commissioner Boulton had marked out men to be fired immediately at the date (when the mayor came into office) and men to be fired later.

He pointed out that there is now a danger of the city finding itself with a new body of superintendents all through. "What was the council to do?" "Fire Boulton," a voice answered.

"And Bulchart," another.

"It is a case," said his worship, "of the whole council getting out or of Boulton getting out."

H. B. TEAM WIN HARD, FINE MATCH

NORWOODS LOSE ONLY AFTER MOST STRENUOUS PLAY, WHICH REQUIRED EXTRA TIME.

The Norwoods lost by three to two to the Hudson's Bay team at the Excelsior rink last night, but extra time was required and the most strenuous efforts were necessitated on the part of the Mercantile League boys. It was one of the most exciting games of the season. Neither team could manage to score in the first half, in which the play was fast, although rough in spots. The two went out in the second half with a determination to do or die, and at time, a tie existed at 2-2. Bazzling plays followed in rapid succession in the over time minutes, Hudson's Bay finally registering the winning goal.

HARD JOLT IS HANDED TO CALGARY

SOME OF ITS PLAYERS ARE NOT ELIGIBLE TO COMPETE IN GAMES FOR ALLAN CUP.

Calgary cannot compete for the Allan Cup.

This is the decision set down by the Alberta Amateur Athletic Union, following a meeting held at Red Deer, the main object of which was to consider the matter of the eligibility of the Calgary team, the matter having been referred to the organization by the trustees of the Allan Cup. Representatives at the meeting came to the conclusion that the Calgary team did not comply to Rule 7, which says that any players who have played in the same league with the challenging team, but on other teams, are not eligible.

The Union is busy at present looking into a number of registrations and it is expected that some interesting discoveries will be made.

J. W. Ward, governor for this district, and Prof. Edwards, of Strathcona, were in attendance at the meeting.

Is there any other thing in the sporting directory that is quite as busy as the International Skating Union? We passed to adjust a heel strap.

ALBERTA U. WINS WITH GREAT EASE

SKATCHEWAN PROVES EASY IN GAME WHICH DECIDES INTER-COLLEGIATE TITLE

(Special to The Capital.) Saskatoon, Sask., Feb. 28.—Alberta won the intercollegiate championship of Alberta and Saskatchewan by defeating the Saskatchewan septette here last night by a score of 16-0.

The Saskatchewan boys were badly outclassed and did not exhibit any of the speed nor stick-handling of the visitors, who seemed to be able to score at will.

Dean, Blaney and Goodrich were the stars of the Alberta team, the latter scoring no less than eight goals, while Gilmour, the Saskatchewan goal-tender, was the backbone of his team, stopping dozens of hard shots which he cleared nicely.

The Alberta boys certainly surprised the inhabitants of this city who are looking for a great game when the Saskatchewan Senators and Varsity meet to-night. The teams lined up as follows:

Alberta Saskatchewan
May,..... goal Gilmour
Dobson,..... point Walker
Rodgers,..... cover point McClell
Dean,..... rover Lloyd

Don't Forget the Battle Cry—"Four to Tie and Five to Win"—
"Shorty" Campbell Feeling in Grand Shape and May be in Line up for White's Brave Youngsters—Brown, of Calgary, Will Referee, and Harold Deeton is to be Judge of Play—Setting of Date Due to Fear of Soft Ice Later

All is in readiness for the big game to-night for the championship of the Province of Alberta.

And unless the dope and calculations are shot to—and other warm spells—it will be some game. One thing that can be relied upon is that it will be fought and that nothing has been arranged. There are no grounds upon which the charge can be founded that the result will be padded in order to "get the big gate" for a return match. The result will be strictly on its merits and there'll be a hot time on the cold ice to-night.

Good news for the Deacons' supporters is that "Shorty" Campbell is quite likely to be in the line-up when the referee blows his whistle. Campbell was out yesterday afternoon with the team and indulged in a hard practice. He felt so good after the half-hour's work that he just begged Trainer Anse Young to let him go into the game.

Young liked the way in which Campbell showed up and it might be that he will concede this afternoon to have him among the scrappers to-night.

The St. Mary's team arrived in Edmonton yesterday afternoon and immediately repaired to the hotel. The boys have been hard at work for more than a week and feel in the best of shape so that it was not necessary for them to get out on the ice for a limbering up. This morning, it was stated that it was not yet decided definitely if Melhuish, the star point man, would be in the fray.

Brown, who was judge of play in the game between the Deacons and St. Mary's at Calgary, will officiate as referee in to-night's match. Harold Deeton will be judge of play.

In explanation of the sudden decision of the Deacons to play the big game to-night instead of Thursday, as to whether point will be cared for by "Shorty" Campbell or Bill Banford.

The game is to be played at the rink and the whistle blows at 8:15. Take a tip and be on hand early.

The greatest of interest has been manifested in the game and the largest crowd of the season is expected to turn out at the Thistle to-night. Scores of followers of the grand sport are in from Calgary and many more will be here this afternoon so that the St. Mary's aggregation will not lack encouragement.

"It was our original intention to insist upon Thursday night for the big game with St. Mary's, but owing to the sudden change in the weather, we feared that the ice might get too soft to permit of playing and we preferred not to take any chances."

The lineup for the Deacons had not been definitely decided upon but it will be as announced in yesterday's Capital, with the exception of the uncertainty as to whether point will be cared for by "Shorty" Campbell or Bill Banford.

HOUSE BOYS OF Y.M.C.A. PLAY FINE BASKETBALL AND DEFEAT THE WANDERERS.

In a basketball game that was, without doubt, the best played in Edmonton this season, the Dormats defeated the Wanderers last night by the score of 34 to 25, the contest being replete with excellent passing and fine throwing.

The first half was the best kind of basketball. It was nip and tuck at every stage of the proceedings and when the half time whistle blew, the score stood fifteen to thirteen for the Dormats. This slight gain was rapidly increased when play was resumed.

The match was the first of the Big Three schedule and aroused much enthusiasm, the gallery being crowded with lovers of basketball.

The next game will be that between the Dormats and the Varsity team on March 6th.

ORGANIZE BIG HOTEL BALL CLUBS

LEAGUE NOW TALKED OF FOR COMING SEASON TO HAVE EIGHT FAST TEAMS IN IT.

A league composed of eight clubs, organized in Edmonton's big hotels, is the latest baseball proposition now up on the tapis and which will be discussed seriously at a meeting to be called in the immediate future.

Baseball this year is destined to enjoy the greatest year of prosperity that has yet been its lot and amid cold blasts, it is one grand topic of conversation on every side. No sooner had the announcement of the earnest launching of a team of the Yale hotel employees, managed by Bob McDonald and captained by Norman McNeil, been made than live wires in other leading establishments got busy and talked things over. The present plans count on eight clubs, to be made up of teams representing the King Edward, Royal George, Yale, Alberta, Windsor, Cecil, Kitchener and Castle.

The Kitchener and Castle had games last year, and as both have nearly all of the old players on hand, they could be expected to make creditable showings. All of the other hotels are said to have some fast diamond stars as a nucleus for their ball teams.

THEY PLAN YEAR'S BIG MEET HERE

CALDEONIANS AND EDMONTON ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION WOULD HAVE THE PROVINCIAL.

The Amateur Provincial Athletic Meet, the biggest thing in athletics in Alberta, may be held in Edmonton this year!

At the meeting of the Alberta Amateur Athletic Union, a request was received from the Caldeonians, of Edmonton, and the Edmonton Athletic Association asking that this city be awarded the big meet for this year. The matter was not passed upon at the meeting as it was deemed advisable to allow it to go over until the annual meeting, to be held in Edmonton on Good Friday. According to officials, it is likely that the meet will take place here.

The annual meeting will bring together in Edmonton the representatives from all of the bodies of the Union, the biggest gathering of representatives of athletics held in the Province.

SOUTHERN LEAGUE MEETING
New Orleans, La., Feb. 28.—President Kavanaugh and other officials and club owners of the Southern League arrived in town to-day for the annual spring meeting which is to be held to-morrow at the St. Charles Hotel.

The adoption of the schedule will be the principal business of the meeting. The schedule that has been prepared by the committee and which doubtless will receive the approval of the managers, provides for a season of 140 games, opening on April 15 and closing September 10.

NEWS OF THE CITY

Mrs. John P. Ross, 295 Eleventh street, will not receive again this season.

Mrs. J. W. Huff, 538 Eleventh street, will not receive on Thursday, March 2nd.

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary society of McEwain Methodist church will be held at 3 p.m. today, in the lecture room of the church.

Remember the Dickens' entertainment in All Saints' schoolroom, this evening at 8:15. Celebrated "Brace of Promise Gas" and other amusing scenes of the author.

Belle Moore pleaded guilty this morning before Magistrate Turnbull to selling liquor without a license at her residence near the Parkside mine and was fined $100.00 and costs. The charge against Josie St. John, charged with being an inmate of a disorderly house, was dismissed on motion of the prosecution.

DID NOT RECEIVE ORDER FROM MAYOR

Building Inspector Makes Affidavit Regarding Inspection of Church—Mayor Not Notified Till Afterwards.

Building Inspector Drabble this morning took affidavit to the effect that he had not received orders from Mayor Armstrong to make an inspection of the old McEwain church building, contrary to the report of the morning papers, who endeavored to fix upon Mayor Armstrong an unworthy motive, in suddenly changing the place of meeting to the Bijou theatre.

Mayor Armstrong was notified of the building inspector's action until 6:17 p.m. Two minutes after that, H. Milton Martin, and others interested in Mr. Drabble's report, were notified by telephone of the condemnation of the old church building, and it was agreed among them that the meeting be held in the Bijou theatre.

The statement has been made that Mayor Armstrong exceeded his time last night in closing the meeting. The following is extracted from the agreement regarding the meeting signed by Gen. H. O'Connor, on behalf of the council, and by H. Milton Martin, on behalf of the pro-bouillists: "The mayor is to close the meeting, using as much time as he desires."

TAKE CENSUS OF BABIES

Take a census of your babies and should you chance to miss two or three of them, call up police headquarters. Three babies, two boys and a chubby-faced miss, have been found but have not been inquired for by the police and already scores of applicants have announced their readiness to adopt them.

Mrs. Drury, of 534 Fraser avenue, notified the police yesterday afternoon that her daughter, aged two years, had strayed from home. A few minutes later, a lady residing at 415 Fraser avenue, upon purpose, a miss had strayed into her home. It was little Miss Drury and she was promptly returned to her worried mother.

But who do the other three, those two little chaps and the little mademoiselle, belong to? If all the little children are not home to supper, better count them over and get them home for the evening and ready for their little coats.

HUDSON BAY LAND TO BE THROWN ON MARKET

STRIP OF LAND, SIX BLOCKS WIDE, AGGREGATING 1400 LOTS, WILL BE OFFERED FOR SALE WITHIN NEXT TWO WEEKS

In a couple of weeks' time the Hudson Bay company will place upon the market the most valuable portion of the reserve, comprising a strip six blocks wide, from First street west, and extending from Churchill to Alberta avenue. The new subdivision will consist of some seven blocks, containing in the neighborhood of 1400 lots. S. A. King, manager of the district office of the company, expects to receive word in a few days' time as to the date when this subdivision will be placed on the market. Sale will probably be made by application.

The plan which the company submitted some weeks ago has been withdrawn, in favor of the larger subdivision. The latter is not of perfectly regular design, owing to the fact that the company have drawn up a comprehensive plan for the layout of the whole subdivision, this plan showing diagonal roads meeting in the centre of the reserve.

A plan which the Capital viewed this morning in the city commissioner's office shows the whole reserve subdivided. The plan has been filed with Counsel for the plaintiff read other affidavits, pursuant to Saturday's injunction.

He produced further affidavits, one by W. J. Enslie, dealing with the organization of German, Clancy and Grindley, the number of shares held by Mr. Grindley in the company.

An affidavit regarding the extent of Alderman Bouillon's interest in the Standard Plumbing and Heating company, and the amount of business that he had done with the city in past years, was also submitted by way of evidence.

Mr. Bouillon announced that he had subpoenaed Commissioner Bouillon, and might wish to call him to the stand at a later date. An affidavit had also been obtained from Building Inspector Martin.

Solicitor Brown.

In addressing his lordship Mr. Brown contended that the action which had been instituted was one which should generally cease from the attorney general alone.

"It must be allowed that the judgment of the council has been properly exercised until it is shown that there was abuse," said G. B. O'Connor. The plaintiff, to prove his standing in the court must show beyond this that he was abused.

E. B. Williams opposed the injunction on the ground that G. Gallagher had not status in the court in behalf of himself or the citizens of Edmonton, unless specific damages to himself had been sustained. Not one case was on record in which an injunction had been granted in behalf of the public in the manner of Mr. Williams' application. Had application been made in behalf of himself for improper

CONTENT VILLAGE WANTS A RAILWAY

To press the claims of the village of Content on the Red Deer River, for an extension of the Stettler-Brazee line of the C.N.R. into the village, two delegations one from Red Deer, and the other from the Content district waited upon Premier Sifton this morning.

The Red Deer delegation was headed by E. M. McInnes, leader of the opposition in the legislature, and the Content delegation was headed by Robert Shaw, M.P.P. for Stettler.

The Stettler-Brazee branch is now building. It runs from Stettler west to Rocky Mountain house, and into the Brazee coal fields. By a dip of two miles south of the present location of the line out of Stettler, the road would touch Content. The delegations asked Premier Sifton to use his influence in securing this concession. The premier promised that he would certainly use his influence, but that since the road was guaranteed neither by the provincial or the Dominion parliament, nothing could be done to compel the railway to change the route.

Business Men's TRIP PROBABILITY

The board of trade are again taking up actively the matter of the business men's trip around the towns and villages of the Edmonton district, and it is probable that a three-day trip covering the entire district to Red Deer on the south, Lloydminster on the east and Edson on the west, will be arranged for this summer.

Canvass is now being made of the business men. If a sufficient number agree to participate in the expense of the trip, it will be undertaken. It is understood, some time in June.

In the death of George Galliford yesterday morning from cancer of the stomach, the Edmonton Salvation Army lost one of its staunchest workers. Mr. Galliford, who was 50 years of age, married and the father of nine children, came to Edmonton eighteen months ago from Shipley, England. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock from the Salvation Army barracks.

misal of a commissioner and the dismissal of any other official. A commissioner should not be dismissed except for cause satisfactory to the council, according to the terms of the charter. Other officials could be discharged at will without cause being given. This made the dismissal of a commissioner comparable to the dismissal of any other officer, and implied the right to a judicial or a quasi-judicial investigation—an investigation by the council would be a quasi-judicial trial. His lordship compared the dismissal of Bouillon to the dismissal of a member of a proprietary club. A member of such club could be dismissed without "the dictates of natural justice being regarded," without a demand that a charge be laid and definite reasons given, being accepted to. Only after the charge had been considered could a member be dismissed.

There was not the slightest doubt in his lordship's mind that the cases were parallel. Affidavits submitted showed that there was dissatisfaction with the commissioner. The investigation committee had never reported to the council, though it might be that the council might take the matter out of the hands of the committee.

"If the original application had been made before instead of Mr. Justice Beck," said his lordship, "I should have treated it in the same way."

His lordship instructed the defence to present their affidavits by Thursday at noon, and the plaintiffs will present theirs by Friday at 2 p.m., when the hearing will be continued. In the interim the injunction continues in force.

Justice Beck declared that in his opinion the question might be settled by Friday, without going to trial. It goes to trial this will take place probably on Wednesday next.

HUDSON BAY LAND TO BE THROWN ON MARKET

STRIP OF LAND, SIX BLOCKS WIDE, AGGREGATING 1400 LOTS, WILL BE OFFERED FOR SALE WITHIN NEXT TWO WEEKS

In a couple of weeks' time the Hudson Bay company will place upon the market the most valuable portion of the reserve, comprising a strip six blocks wide, from First street west, and extending from Churchill to Alberta avenue. The new subdivision will consist of some seventy blocks, containing in the neighborhood 1400 lots.

S. A. King, manager of the district office of the company, expects to receive word in a few days' time as to the exact date when this subdivision will be placed on the market. Sale will probably be made by application.

The plan which the company submitted some weeks ago has been withdrawn, in favor of the larger subdivision. The latter is of perfectly regular design, owing to the fact that the company has drawn up a comprehensive plan for the layout of the new subdivision, this plan showing diagonal roads meeting in the centre of the reserve.

A plan which the Capital viewed this morning in the city commissioner's office shows the whole reserve subdivided. The plan has been filed with the commissioners, and approval. It shows two main thoroughfares, each 100 feet wide, crossing the reserve diagonally. They are to be named Kingsway and Portage avenue, and will join the north-west corner of the reserve with a point on First street one block north of Churchill, (Bov avenue the new avenue will be called.)

In the centres of the triangles formed by the intersecting roads will be situated four parks, each ten acres in extent, and a large public square will be situated at the centre of the reserve.

Norwood boulevard will be continued west across the reserve as a 100 foot street, but the others will be of standard width and will be continued.

Mr. King was questioned by a Capital man as to the date when the property which is shown in the new plan will be placed on the local market. He stated that he did not anticipate that this would take place for some time to come. Only that portion of it extending six blocks west from First street will be placed on the market for the time being.
